

Punjabi Language and Culture 30

Teacher Contact Info

Mr. D. Parhar	Room 2110	dsparhar@cbe.ab.ca
---------------	-----------	--

Course Description:

Congratulations on choosing Punjabi Language and Culture 30 and welcome! In this course, you will be presented many opportunities to discover and enhance your skills in both the Punjabi language and Punjabi culture. This is an Advance level course intended for students who have successfully completed Punjabi Language and Culture 20. For some of you it is the second time that you will be learning Punjabi language and for others who already have some knowledge of Punjabi or a family connection to the culture, you have the opportunity to maintain contact with the language, culture and heritage.

Punjabi Language and Culture 30 is made up of two key components. In one component, students will have the opportunity to review the Punjabi alphabet, grammar, and vowels and expand upon four primary language skills (listening, speaking, reading and writing) at the Advance. For instance, clear oral production and comprehension, advance vocabulary. Students will also be able to read, write and speak Punjabi Text.

This course requires the pre request Punjabi Culture and Language 20.

Course Objectives and Assessment:

For a more detailed list of curricular outcomes, please see the Alberta Education Punjabi Language and Culture 10-30 Program of Study found here:

<http://www.learnalberta.ca/ProgramOfStudy.aspx?lang=en&ProgramId=976668#>

Competencies

In this course, all of the eight competencies identified by Alberta Education are embedded within the course material. We will formally assess four of these competencies throughout the year in Punjabi Language and Culture 30.

Competency Area	Indicators
Culture and Global Citizenship	Considering diverse perspectives when examining interactions between cultural systems and communities; Applying Punjabi knowledge in school and community
Managing Information	Accessing information from a variety of digital or non-digital sources; organize/present information demonstrating understandings
Communication	Sharing ideas through speaking, listening, reading and writing in Punjabi; Demonstrate respect, empathy and responsibility when communicating with others
Collaboration	Participation, sharing ideas and share responsibilities, value the contribution of others; demonstrating sensitivity to other cultures and perspectives

Outcomes 100%

Unit / Weight	Outcome
Skill Development 70%	Applies to all outcomes of knowledge, communication, and appreciation of culture. • Listening and Speaking Component • Reading Component • Writing Component • Knowledge of culture
Examination 30%	Discover, develop and evaluate skills and abilities in communication and knowledge of Punjabi Language and Culture 20 with appropriate skill level to proceed to Punjabi Language and Culture 30.
Competencies	For students to be successful in Punjabi Language and Culture 20, they need to be able to appreciate and positively critique their work and receive that criticism from others. They must build a sense of trust so they feel comfortable taking risks to increase their creative and educational knowledge. Students will be encouraged to: • participate (mostly in trying to speak Punjabi in class) • maintain a positive and respectful attitude • come prepared and on time for class • complete homework and cooperate with teacher, classmates, and guests

Course Materials and Resources:

Students will be required to bring stationary such as a binder/notebook and writing utensils - preferably a pen and a pencil. All assignments (writing assignments, projects, portfolio, etc.) must be completed and are due at the beginning of the class period on the assigned date.

Key Links:

- Passport to Success and Student Guidelines
- Competency Overview

Student signature: _____ Parent signature: _____